Attention: Connie Pack

IN RE: Transfer of realty by Sheriff's Deed for Charlotte McCarty, etal

Dear Ms. Pack:

I have reviewed two deeds from your office as to their possibility fortransfer and recording.

It would be our opinion that parcel number 01-032-1402 holds the property in both the name of William and Charlotte McCarty and would require an Affidavit of Transfer from William, now deceased, to Charlotte in order to eliminate his interest and permit a Sheriff's Deed from the name of Charlotte McCarty, et al.

As to parcel number 01-039-1400 and 01-039-1600, this property exist in the name of William E. McCarty alone. The Sheriff's Deed on these two parcels is in the name of Charlotte McCarty, et al, with no explaination as to whom the other party to this litagation might be. A Sheriff's Deed from Charlotte McCarty, et al, would not be effective as to property in the name of William E. McCarty without some further explaination on the deed itself.

Sincerely,

RICHARD B. MEYERS

Attention: Connie Pack

IN RE: Transfer of realty by Sheriff's Deed for Charlotte McCarty, etal

Dear Ms. Pack:

I have reviewed two deeds from your office as to their possibility fortransfer and recording.

It would be our opinion that parcel number 01-032-1402 holds the property in both the name of William and Charlotte McCarty and would require an Affidavit of Transfer from William, now deceased, to Charlotte in order to eliminate his interest and permit a Sheriff's Deed from the name of Charlotte McCarty, et al.

As to parcel number 01-039-1400 and 01-039-1600? this property exist in the name of William E. McCarty alone. The Sheriff's Deed on these two parcels is in the name of Charlotte McCarty, et al, with no explaination as to whom the other party to this litagation might be. A Sheriff's Deed from Charlotte McCarty, et al, would not be effective as to property in the name of William E. McCarty without some further explaination on the deed itself.

Sincerely,

RICHARD B. MEYERS
