Board of County Commissioners
Lawrence County,
Court House,
Ironton, Ohio 45638

Gentlemen:

I have your letter of August 8, 1986, in reference to action taken by the board of county commissioners toward the vacation of Peyton Avenue. These papers disclose an inconsistancy between two actions taken by the board with reference to the vacation of said Peyton Avenue.

The actions of the commissioners according to their journal entries show actions taken at separate times. The first action wound up with the commissioners denying the vacation requested. There was a veiw made of the premises and publication of the time and place of the view and of the meeting for final hearing on the matter.

There was a second attempt to vacate these premises which requested the commissioners adopt a resolution to vacate Peyton Avenue. However, the resolution did contain an errorin the description of the premises. This resolution of the vacation was sent to the auditor for correction of the tax list. The auditor made the transfer on the tax duplicate, the record of the transfer was taken to the recorder and entered in the recorder's books for transfer of the real estate.

The tonwship trustees sent notice of approval to the county commissioners who then conveyed their wish to have the matter of the transfer of Peyton Avenue re-considered. It was at this point that the papers were sent to this office by the commissioners.

At this point, we find that there was no further action to be taken by the board of county commissioners. The action now is a determination of real estate titles which is a judicial determination and not one to be made by this office. Any further action taken in this matter by the commissioners would only further complicate the title question.

In specific answer to your question, it is our opinion, and you are so advised, that there is no further action to be taken by the commissioners in this matter at this time. Any one who feels disabused by the present situation should proceed to court for an answer since it is a title dispute.

Respectfully submitted,

RICHARD B. MEYERS,
PROSECUTING ATTORNEY
